Webinar:

Justice and Beauty in Muslim Marriage

Two editors of this book will share their ideas about Islamic feminism, family law, and marriage.

This book, coordinated by the Musawah movement for equality and justice in the Muslim family, brings together a diverse group of scholars. This event is a platform for everyone interested in discussions about how egalitarian marital relations can be supported within existing Islamic traditions.

Dr. Ziba Mir-Hosseini

Professorial Research Associate at the Centre for Islamic and Middle Eastern Law, SOAS, University of London. She is a legal anthropologist, specializing in Islamic law, gender and Islamic feminism, and a founding member of Musawah.

Register: (by October 18, Zoom details will be sent to registered participants)
